Revenue

The Group's revenue increased by RMB 27.6 million (or 34.37%) to RMB 108.1 million. The increase in revenue was due mainly to the increase in sales of the Finished Zippers (RMB 2.0 million), Zipper Chains (RMB 19.3 million) and Zipper Sliders segment (RMB 3.8 million) (collectively referred as the "Zippers Segment") as well as the Trading segment (RMB 3.9 million). This was partially offset by the decrease in revenue derived from the Knitting Wool segment (RMB 1.3 million).

The increase in revenue from the Zippers segment was attributable to the increase in export business for both direct overseas customers and export oriented garment factories as a result of the recovering economy.

The decrease in revenue for the Knitting Wool segment was due to the Group scaling down the Knitting Wool operations in Shanghai.

Gross Profit and Gross Profit Margin

The Group's gross profit increased by RMB 5.7 million (or 32.55%) to RMB 23.4 million. The Group's gross profit margin declined marginally by 0.30% to 21.65%. This was largely attributable to lower gross profit margin from the Trading segment.

Other income and other expenses

Other income comprises rental income while other expenses consist mainly of motor car expenses. The net increase was due mainly to the increase in rental income effected in the second half of 2009.

Selling and distribution expenses

Selling and distribution expenses increased by RMB 0.2 million (or 33.62%) to RMB 0.9 million. The increase was due mainly to an increase in advertising expenses incurred for the sales promotion of the Group's products.

General and administrative expenses

General and administrative expenses decreased by RMB 0.5 million (or 8.83%) to RMB 0.4 million. This was attributable to the write-back of allowance for doubtful debts amounting to RMB 0.8 million in 1Q10.

Finance income and expenses

Finance expenses decreased by RMB 1.6 million (or 63.90%) to RMB 0.9 million. This was attributable to the decrease in short-term loans and bills payable to banks as most of them had been repaid in June 2009. Finance income was higher in 1Q10 as a result of an increase in cash and bank balances.

Foreign exchange gain or loss

There was an overall decrease in foreign exchange loss due to the smaller appreciation of China RMB against Hong Kong Dollar and a decrease in bank balance denominated in United States Dollar.

Notes

¹ Current tax increased by RMB 1.9 million or 59.88% due to an increase in profit before taxation in 1Q10.

² On 22 February 2008, the State Administration of Taxation of China issued a circular Caishui 2008 No.001, which states that distribution of dividends from profits accumulated from 1 January 2008 onwards shall be subject to withholding tax on distribution to foreign investors. Accordingly, the Group has provided for deferred tax liabilities on the Group's profit-making PRC subsidiaries' net profit attained in 4Q09. As Jade Star (the PRC's subsidiaries' immediate holding Company) was incorporated in the British Virgin Islands, the applicable withholding tax rate is 10%.

FINANCIAL POSITION

Non-current assets

As at 31 March 2010, non-current assets amounted to RMB 280.1 million comprising property, plant and equipment, investment property, land use rights and intangible assets.

The Group's property, plant and equipment amounted to RMB 183.3 million, a decrease of 2.68% (or RMB 5.1 million) compared to FY09. The decrease was due mainly to depreciation.

Current assets

Current assets increased by RMB 15.0 million (or 1.5%) in 1Q10 to RMB 1.0 billion. This was largely due to an increase in cash and bank balances which was offset by the decrease in trade receivables, bills receivables, other receivables and prepayments.

Trade receivables decreased by RMB 3.9 million, following the settlement of debt by customers before the Lunar New Year in February 2010. The decrease in other receivables and prepayments was mainly due to a decrease in advances made to suppliers.

Bills receivables were duly settled in 1Q10.

Current liabilities

Current liabilities decreased by RMB 2.3 million (or 1.97%) to RMB 114.7 million. This was attributable to the decrease in bills payables which was offset by the increase in trade payables, other payables and accruals.

The increase in trade payables was due to an increase in purchase of raw materials in line with the production capacity increase during the year. Other payables & accruals increased due to an increase in advances received from customers by RMB 13.8 million.

Most of the bills payables were repaid in 1Q10.

Non-current liabilities

Non-current liabilities increased by RMB1.1 million (or 1.46%) to RMB 74.5 million which comprised convertible notes, term loan and deferred tax liabilities. The convertible notes were issued in September 2009 and are due in September 2011. The term loan was raised for the acquisition of investment property in Hong Kong which was announced on 26 November 2009 (announcement no: 00077). The increase in deferred tax liabilities was due mainly to the increase in withholding tax as explained above under the note for tax expense.

Cash Flow

The Group's cash and cash equivalents increased due to the increase in cash inflow from operations. As at 31 March 2010, the Group has significant cash and bank balances.

9. Where a forecast, or a prospect statement, has been previously disclosed to shareholders, any variance between it and the actual results.

No forecast or prospect statement had been disclosed to shareholders previously.

10. A commentary at the date of the announcement of the significant trends and competitive conditions of the industry in which the group operates and any known factors or events that may affect the group in the next reporting period and the next 12 months.

With the positive signs on the recovery of the economy, the Group is confident of an improvement in demand from both the PRC customers and export oriented garment factories in 2010. The Group however, expects its labour cost to increase due to the tightening of labour supply along coastal cities in the PRC, and shall adjust its pricing accordingly.

The Group will continue to work towards improving its operational efficiencies by continuing to work on its process automation, and new product development which could generate higher profit margin. The Group shall be scaling down and eventually stop its wool operations in Shanghai plant, after fulfilling its obligations to customers.

The Group will also continue to enhance its brand name and develop sales strategies to remain competitive and grow its market share. It will also explore further business opportunities to invest in businesses within the supply chain of the zipper products.

Barring unforeseen circumstances, the Group expects to achieve a profit growth over last year.
